In May 1952 three large new buildings, 50 meters long, were built in the area of the barracks. As soon as they were completed, a very large quantity of secret weapons (sic), produced at the J. Stalin Factory in Poznan, were brought in at night. The type of weapon is not known since they were not distributed to the units. It is possible that they are mortars of the newest type and some kind of small arms. The stores are guarded. The brigade has its summer camp at Gora Kalwarja, which is known as the KEW Brigade Training Camp. The camp was built in 1950. It consists of 14 recruit companies which total more than 2,000 men.
